

Shared Governance @UMW

New Faculty Orientation, September 27, 2017

THE CHRONICLE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

SECTIONS FEATURED: Jeff Sessions on Free Speech Get the Teaching Newsletter A New Liberal Art

ADVICE

Exactly What Is 'Shared Governance'?

Brian Taylor

By Gary A. Olson | JULY 23, 2009

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

2.2 Role of the Faculty in University Governance

2.2.1 Authority and Responsibility of the Faculty The Board of Visitors has designated the President as the chief executive, administrative, and academic officer of the University of Mary Washington, with responsibility for proposing policies and programs for the University, as well as responsibility for their effective implementation upon approval by the Board. Consistent with these responsibilities, the President has delegated the following authority to the faculty of the University:

- .1 to determine academic offerings consistent with the established mission of the University;
- .2 to determine the requirements for all degrees offered by the University;
- .3 to recommend types of degrees and candidates for all such degrees;
- .4 to formulate general admissions policies for the University;
- .5 to enact and to enforce academic regulations for students in matters of attendance, examinations, grading, scholastic standing, honors, and awards;
- .6 to design and to monitor the annual faculty evaluation system;
- .7 to recommend policies concerning faculty welfare; and
- .8 to develop and to supervise a committee system for the orderly exercise of the authority that has been delegated to it.

University Faculty Council

- College of Education (3)
- College of Business (3)
- College of Arts and Sciences – Health, PE & STEM (3)
- College of Arts and Sciences – Social Sciences (3)
- College of Arts and Sciences – Humanities (3)
- At-Large (3)
- Ex Officio (President, Provost, SGA Representative)

Committees (Standing/Elected)

- Academic Affairs
- Faculty Affairs
- Faculty Appeals and Grievances
- Faculty Organization
- Sabbaticals, Fellowships and Faculty Awards
- Curriculum Committee
- General Education

Committees (Advisory/Appointed)

- Bachelor of Liberal Studies
- Budget Advisory
- Distance and Blended Learning
- First Year Seminar
- Honors Program
- James Farmer Multicultural Center
- Journalism Advisory
- Speaking Intensive
- Student Affairs and Campus Life Advisory
- Teaching Center Advisory
- Writing Intensive

GET
INVOLVED!