

FULL SCHEDULE OF NEW FACULTY ORIENTATION PLANS

For Faculty Starting in August 2017

WEEK ONE

Wednesday, August 16

Check-in for New Faculty Orientation, 8:00 a.m. Lee Hall, room 412
Breakfast available at 8 a.m.; new faculty need to arrive promptly so that all appropriate benefit and related employment forms may be distributed and/or collected.)

Start of Academic Orientation for New Full Time (FT) Faculty, 8:30 – 9:30 a.m. Lee Hall, room 412

Human Resources Orientation for New Full-Time Faculty, 9:45 a.m. -- remainder of day). Lee Hall, room 412

Thursday, August 17

All employees

President's "All UMW Opening Assembly," 10:00 – 11:45 a.m. George Washington Hall, Dodd Auditorium (light refreshments available in the Dodd Foyer at 8 a.m.)

New Faculty

Orientation to Academic Support Services and Resources, noon. – 2:00 p.m. Hurley Convergence Center (HCC), room 210. (Lunch provided by Provost's Office).

Library Orientation, 2:15 – 3:45 p.m. Simpson Library Lobby

Friday, August 18

All Faculty

"Workshop: Implicit Bias in the Academy -- Meeting the Challenge," 10:00 a.m. – noon, University Center, Chandler Ballroom.
This workshop is open to all faculty and staff and builds upon the important work of the President's Task Force on Diversity and Inclusion. The program will be led by Benjamin Reese, Vice President for Institutional Equity at Duke University.

Workshop: Universal Design and Accessible Communication, 1:30 – 4:30 p.m., University Center, Chandler Ballroom.
This program explores the ways in which UMW Faculty and Staff could utilize the insights of Universal Design and new and emerging technologies to make our campus more inclusive and accessible. Corey Singleton, Assistive Technology Initiative Manager, George Mason University.

WEEK TWO

Monday, August 21New Faculty

Title IX Training, 9 - 10 a.m. HCC, room 111.

Teaching Technologies, 10:15 a.m. – noon. HCC, room 111.

Having reliable access to technology is vitally important. This session will offer an overview of support resources and development opportunities for working with technology at UMW. The session will also introduce various digital platforms available for teaching, including Canvas (the learning management system) and Domain of One's Own.

noon, Lunch provided by the Provost's Office, and an introduction to the HelpDesk and IT Desktop Support Services. HCC room 111.

Student Support and Threat Assessment, 12:15-1:45 p.m. HCC room 111.

An overview of the various offices, programs, and staff that work with students to build academic success and who also assist those in need extra support or who may find themselves in crisis. In particular, this session will focus on an introduction to a variety of support services and will cover topics such as residential living, counseling services, judicial affairs, campus safety, and student life.

All Faculty

Green Zone, 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. University Center, Chandler Ballroom.

Our veteran population is significant and growing. This program is for all faculty interested in learning more about the issues and needs of active military, student veterans, and their families and what we can do to support them.

Tuesday, August 22 (all events on this day are for all faculty)

Opening Meeting of the Faculty, 10:00 a.m. – noon. George Washington Hall, Dodd Auditorium.
Messages from President Troy Paino, Provost Nina Mikhalevsky, introduction of new faculty members, and presentation of the "Topher" Bill Award for Faculty Service.

Faculty Luncheon, 12:15 - 1:30 p.m., Chandler Ballroom, University Center

Department Meetings (as scheduled), 1:30 – 3 p.m.

Wednesday, August 23

Move in Day for First Year Students and COLLEGE DAY (events as arranged by the Deans of the Colleges).

College of Arts and Sciences (no events for new CAS faculty)

* Orientation for New Department Chairs, 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. Minor Board Room, Jepson Alumni Executive Center (JAEC).

* Department Chairs Meeting, noon – 4 p.m. Minor Board Room, JAEC.

WEEK TWO (continued)

WEEK TWO (continued)

College of Business (all COB faculty): 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., COB ADVANCE at Stevenson Ridge (6901 Meeting St., Spotsylvania — off Courthouse Rd.)

College of Education (all COE faculty): 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., “Setting Goals and Planning.” Gates-Hudson Building, Stafford Campus.

Thursday, August 24

All Faculty

All Faculty Meeting on Student Success, Advising, and More, 9:00 – 11 a.m. University Center, Chandler Ballroom.

This wide-ranging and jam-packed information session offers the latest news on UMW’s student success efforts, details new initiatives and provides important information for the upcoming academic year. This includes important advising information and announcements relevant to all faculty.

Break Out Sessions (at the Hurley Convergence Center)

11:00 a.m. – noon, Community Engaged Learning @ UMW. HCC, room 329.

This session is for all faculty interested in learning more about the past, present, and future of service and community engaged learning at UMW.

11:00 a.m. – noon, Blue Pulse: An Introduction. HCC, room 327.

Learn more about how to get real-time feedback on teaching using live formative evaluations.

2:00 – 4:00 p.m., Blue Pulse Workshop. HCC, Incubator Classroom (room 407).

Take the next step with Blue Pulse. This interactive workshop is designed to help you get you up and running so that you can get real-time and anonymous feedback for your course.

For New Faculty (and others as interested)

1 – 1:45 p.m., Honor Code for New Faculty (and others wishing to learn the basics). HCC, room 210.

UMW’s student-run honor system is a defining feature of life on campus. Learn about our community of trust and unique honor system. Faculty are expected to uphold the honor system in our classes, and this session will help you understand what that means in theory and in practice.

Friday, August 25

All Faculty

HONOR CONVOCATION – 4:30 p.m., Anderson Center.

Assemble 20 minutes beforehand in academic regalia in Goolrick Gymnasium. Academic regalia for this occasion is available for rent from Jostens, phone: 800-854-7464; email: campus.services.east@jostens.com.